

Adobe® Creative Suite® 5.5 Primary and Secondary School Site Licences

Prepare students for academic and career success with new Creative Suite 5.5 software and teaching resources

Affordable site licences are available for the new industry-standard Adobe Creative Suite 5.5 software. Creative Suite 5.5 and supporting resources help primary and secondary school educators teach creativity, collaboration and communication skills that prepare students for rewarding college and career paths. Using CS5.5, everyone can easily create print, web, video and interactive content. With CS5.5, students can now also learn to author for a range of mobile devices. Supporting resources include free standards-aligned curriculums, certification and CS Live online services* (integrated with CS5.5 software).

CS5.5 Master Collection Primary and Secondary School Site Licences — Teachers and students get all the features of Creative Suite 5.5 Design Premium, Design Standard, Web Premium and Production Premium editions with Creative Suite 5.5 Master Collection software. This comprehensive package allows students to design across media with the latest in industry-standard print, web, interactive, video and mobile design tools from Adobe. This is the most inclusive, value-packed offering in the Adobe Primary and Secondary School Site Licence lineup.

CS5.5 Design Premium Primary and Secondary School Site Licences — Students and teachers can easily create print, web and mobile content with Creative Suite 5.5 Design Premium software. Students can express ideas faster — in print, online and on mobile devices — with the same design and production tools used by creative professionals worldwide. Teachers can introduce tablets into the creative workflow, mirroring an important practice among creative professionals. Teachers and students also can easily produce interactive content.

CS5.5 Design Standard Primary and Secondary School Site Licences — Creative Suite 5.5 Design Standard software gives students and teachers the tools they need to produce breathtaking images, sophisticated graphics and precise layouts.

CS5.5 Web Premium Primary and Secondary School Site Licences — Creative Suite 5.5 Web Premium software helps educators teach standards-based career skills in web design and development. Teachers and students can easily create interactive content, as well as content and applications for mobile devices, including tablets and smart phones.

CS5.5 Production Premium Primary and Secondary School Site Licences — Creative Suite 5.5 Production Premium software helps educators teach the filmmaking, broadcasting and video post-production skills needed for rapidly evolving industries. The software includes sweeping performance enhancements that help teachers and students craft video productions, motion graphics, visual effects and interactive experiences for virtually any screen.
