Dinnington High School is a fantastic school to work in with an excellent reputation. The school is extremely popular and attracts students from outside the catchment area. We are situated 12 miles east of Sheffield, which provides an ideal base for a wide range of outdoor and cultural leisure pursuits.

The Leadership Group is committed to:

- enabling students to meet and exceed potential
- ensuring through CPD that all teachers deliver at least good learning
- developing a curriculum model that meets individual needs
- motivating students through a variety of interesting and relevant learning experiences
- encouraging a culture and ethos of mutual respect
- valuing collaboration within and across teams
- ensuring there are structures that promote communication and consultation at all levels
- ensuring that students feel valued

I trust that having read the information you will want to make an application for the post and look forward to receiving it.
